GAYETY IN SOCIETY END OF LENT FAILS

Fewer Weddings Than in Other Years, Several Being Celebrated at Short Notice Because of War-Many Affairs to Aid Charity Planned.

I 71TH the coming of Easter there was not so much of a change as customary after the Lenten quiet, and as far as weddings are concerned they were fewer than for several years, at least in this city. Washington came in for some that were of interest here, and as has been the case for months past there were several weddings celebrated at short notice, particularly those of yesterday, invitations for them having been sent out only a few days in ad-

Since the war began wedding festivities have been decidedly curtailed, and after the church ceremony gatherings for congratulations have been restricted to the immediate relatives and he smallest number possible of fam-Ay friends.

At the opera there have been notable audiences, and the one assembled last Monday night had the appearance of full season, with few of the regular patrons missing. There is frequent evidence that the tropical season is coming to an end, as many whose doings have been chronicled from day to day at the Florida resorts are now to be seen in town.

The engagements of the week have been of interest and some of them will shortly be followed by wedding invitations. News came from Italy of the engagement and aproaching marriage of Lady Sybil Cutting, daughter of the Earl and Countess of Desart, to Geoffrey Scott, an attache of the British Embassy in Rome. Lady Sybil is the widow of W. Ray-ard Cutting, Jr., of this city, and at the time of their marriage she was Lady Sybil Cuffe. For some years she been living near Florence, Italy,

The engagement was announced in London by Lord and Lady Desart and Miss Clara Spence and Miss de Sadleer. There are fust as many calls on the generosity of individuals and the reponses apparently are most liberal. The exhibition of modern French paintings in progress during the past week at the former home of Col. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, 677 Fifth avenue, has been well attended, and at the opening on Monday afternoon many hundred persons were in attendance. The proceeds will be devoted to the of La Protection du Reforme No. 2 of Paris, which cares for soldiers the special direction of Mrs. Robert Bacon and Mrs. Newbold Le Roy

The exhibition will continue for a fortnight. Among the visitors of last week were Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, Mrs. William Jay, Mrs. Oliver W. Bird, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, Mrs. William K. For the benefit of the Junior War Relief Society the Amateur Comedy Club will present at the Garden Theatre on the night of April 17 two comedies, "Paint and Personality," by Albert Sterner, and "The Door," an episode in a carnival at Siena, written by Miss Mildred Cram. This war redief society was organized in 1914, and has a membership of more than 1,000 and there is an average attendance each Tuesday morning of 500 in has given to the society without

Among the many surgical supplies these meetings are compresses, dressings, sponges, layettes, kits, comfort bags, jerseys, scarfs, helmets and socks. The weekly average s more than 17,000 articles and by May 1 the society will have shipped to our own men and our allies here and oad more than 670,000 items. As the organization is entirely dendent on voluntary contributions he proceeds of the performance will e devoted to purchasing supplies. No one connected with the society is paid. The Amateur Comedy Club has been in existence since 1884 and since Dethan twenty-five entertainments for soldlers and sailors directly or for the benefit of the Red Cross.
